

VICTORIA OLIVADOTI

Creating Engagement While Providing Skills Necessary to Meet the Yet to be Determined Challenges of This Rapidly Changing World

Victoria is an award-winning author of #1 book on Amazon; Ask More ,Learn More, Creating a Culture of Curiosity. She is also an educator, and nationally recognized speaker with over 54 years of experience in education. As a parent and grandparent, Victoria has an understanding of both perspectives. She specializes in differentiating instruction to meet students' unique needs. Victoria's innovative methods focus on creating engagement, time management, and fostering a collaborative approach to learning among teachers, parents, and students. The secret to her success is not the questions she asked, but the ones her students asked. She has helped shift the mindset of hundreds of parents, developed programs that empower students to become self-advocates, critical thinkers, and effective time managers. During the COVID-19 pandemic, her strategies proved invaluable, enabling students to not only survive but thrive in the face of disruption.

"Ms. Olivadoti has helped hundreds of students achieve success with her methods. Students and parents know that the system works. Students learn that effort and persistence not only brings academic success, it brings confidence and a "can do" attitude - an invaluable skill that is theirs forever."

Dr. Laura K. Hathaway, Ed. D. Founder, The Pegasus School

Victoria is an engaging speaker who captures her audience attention while offering proven successful strategies that can be implemented immediately.
